

Members of Inland Children's Chorus Enjoy Picnic

The pictures shown above were taken as the members of the Inland Children's Chorus enjoyed a picnic and outing at Triangle Park on Wednesday, September 1. The party was given by our Company in appreciation of the time and effort which the members of the Chorus have given at rehearsals and programs.

Upper left — Some of the girls are shown as they group around the jolly clown who kept everybody in a joyous uproar. The girls are squeezed in so tightly that the clown can hardly be seen.

Upper center — Some of the

enjoyed the fun as much as the kiddies . . . Gus Albers was also a member of the committee. When this picture was taken he was busily serving refreshments at the Park Dining Hall.

MEMBERS OF CHILDREN'S CHORUS ENJOY PICNIC

On Wednesday the boys and girls making up the Inland Children's Chorus enjoyed a picnic and outing at Triangle Park. The program started at 11:00 a.m. with free rides on the ponies and the circle swing.

At 12:30 p.m. the kiddies of the chorus had dinner in the spacious dining hall at the park. It was a treat to see those youngsters eat.

Following dinner the picnickers again enjoyed the free rides, after which a full program of field events was conducted. Souvenir prizes were awarded the winners in these contests, which were conducted by Richard Westbrook, Philip Asbury, Leslie Snyder, Lee Fenner, Marion Moodler, Charles Westbrook and Rome Schwegel.

A roly-poly clown added to the merriment of the occasion, and all of the kiddies departed for their homes, at the end of the festivities, tired but having had a grand time.
