

Inland Children's Chorus to Present a Spring Festival for Inlanders and Their Families at the Dayton Art Institute

Two Evening Performances on Thursday and Friday, May 13th and 14th, and an Afternoon Performance on Sunday, May 16th Make it Possible for All to Attend

As welcome as is Spring after the rigorous months of a long Winter, the presentation of a Spring Festival by the Inland Children's Chorus will be more than a joyous greeting to this glorious season of nature's rebirth.

On May 13th, 14th and 16th Inland's famed and talented children, 100 strong, will raise their lovely voices to inspire all Inlanders with the new hope and prophecy of happier days to come.

This is the second Spring of America's fight for the freedom of men, women and children everywhere. This, then, is a most appropriate time for the Inland Children's Chorus to express in song the hope and beauty that lies eternal in every budding tree and flower.

So for your enjoyment and comfort in these days of stress, you are invited to hear the voices of our own Inland children—and the voices of children everywhere—rebuke with songs that will not die, the tyrants whose ghastly cruelty cannot delay for a single second the rebirth of nature—nor still for long the happy song of youth and love and Spring.
