

INLAND CHORUS TO SING

The 100-voice Inland Children's chorus, shown here in rehearsal with Director Richard Westbrook, Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. will appear with the Dayton Philharmonic orchestra at Memorial hall. The children will sing carols and Bach's Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring. Also programed are the Spinning Chorus from Wagner's The Flying Dutchman, Dvorak's Symphony No. 5, and excerpts from Aaron Copland's Rodeo. Paul Katz will direct the orchestral works and Westbrook will present the chorus in a cappella works.

See concert program for December 20, 1950
on the "Programs" page.