

Inland Children's Chorus Presents Spring Festival Sunday April 22

REAL TROUPERS—Smiling all the way, are these 11 young ladies, despite the fact that this was their final rehearsal with the Inland Children's Chorus to which they have contributed so much and which has come to mean so much to them. They are the graduates of '56 and following the Spring Festival, April 22, at Chaminade High School they can become members of the Adult Choral Group. Pictured front to back, are: Sheila Bailey; Winifred Gingell; Mary Lou Westbrook; Barbara Davis; Marilyn Brun; Jeanna Lamoreux; Donna Hunter; Sharlene Slaven; Julie Albaugh; Julie Kramer and Nancy Donisi.

Spring with all its gayety and the beauty of a hundred young voices, blended to bring the lightness and hope of the new season to all, will fill the Chaminade High School auditorium Sunday afternoon, April 22, when the Inland Children's Chorus presents its annual Spring Festival.

The program, starting at 3:30 P.M. under the direction of Joseph P. Geiger with Paul Ray Jones as accompanist, will be opened with "Blue Bird of Happiness" followed by "Emitte Spiritum"; "April Showers"; "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "O Praise Ye THE LORD—150th Psalm."

After intermission the Chorus will present "Zing Zing, Zoom Zoom"; "Over the Rainbow"; "Five Men Went to Mow"; "Snow White Fantasie" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Admission to the Festival will be by ticket only. Employes can obtain tickets for themselves and their families at Personnel Activities.
