

Robert Eckley "doing lines"

Examples shown on following page.

Original typed reporter's note for feature article in the December 10, 1944 Dayton Sunday Journal-Herald

Photo by James Keen*

*BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

James N. Keen (1911-1984) was a photographer for the Dayton Journal-Herald, Louisville Courier-Journal, and the Associated Press. Keen's work appeared in national publications, such as Life and U.S. Camera Annual. His subjects included such high-profile individuals as Orville Wright, Charles F. Kettering, Winston Churchill, and several U.S. presidents. See "photos" and "articles" pages on InlandChorus.com for the James Keen photos used in a 1944 feature article on the Inland Children's Chorus.

Photo courtesy of Mary Lou (Westbrock) Lubinski

Typical Assigned "Lines"

"lines" - given when someone misbehaved - to be written several times.
My Dad was a dresser for the boys - he had these in his pocket when he came home after a concert (don't think he ever gave any out) ... that's how I came to have these.
Norma Tunney Austin

It's never too late to learn.
B. Westbrook

True friends are priceless.
B. Westbrook

who hesitates is lost.
B. Westbrook

Size of paper strips ("lines"): 5/8" x 3"

From the note above: "lines" - Given when someone misbehaved - to be written several times.

My Dad was a dresser for the boys - he had these in his pocket when he came home after a concert (don't think he ever gave any out) ... that's how I came to have these.

Norma Tunney Austin