O LITTLE TOWN OF BETHLEHEM

O little town of Bethlehem! How still we see thee lie;
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep, The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth, The everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years, Are met in thee tonight.

JINGLE BELLS

Jingle bells! Jingle bells! Jingle all the way!
Oh! what fun it is to ride in a one-horse open sleigh!
Jingle bells! Jingle bells! Jingle all the way!
Oh! what fun it is to ride in a one-horse open sleigh!

Chorus Entertains At Inland Parties

Three Christmas parties, given Sunday afternoon and evening in Memorial hall by the Inland Manufacturing division of General Motors for its employes and their families, drew a larger attendance than in any previous year, Wallace S. Whittaker, general manager of the division, reported.

Approximately 9,000 persons in all were guests of the concern. Principal item of entertainment was a program of Christmas songs by the Inland children's chorus of 100 voices, directed by Richard B. Westbrook. Mary Werner at the piano and Urban Deger at the organ accompanied the group.

At the close of the set program Santa Claus appeared and distributed gifts to the smaller children.
