The Dayton Daily News

ON HER way to Australia where she'll appear as the second lead in a touring company of the show, Kismet, is Dayton's June Albers, known professionally as Morgan St. John.

The young performer's mother, Mrs. August J. Albers of Westfield av., has returned to Dayton from seeing her daughter aboard the plane that took her to the West Coast.

Miss St. John will appear as Lalum in the production by Carroll Fuller Theaters, Ltd. The company will play Melbourne and Sydney and possibly New Zealand. The Daytonian will be with the troupe till June.

Before being signed for the part, Miss St. John appeared in Pal Joey and did a number of night club singing appearances.

A graduate of Julianne high school and the Chicago College of Music, she also attended the University of Dayton. A charter member of the Inland Children's chorus under the direction of the late Richard Westbrook, Miss St. John also appeared in a number of Frigidaire chorus shows under the baton of William J. Krebs.
