In 1995 Matt Phelan, former member (1936-1943) and graphic design executive, distributed without charge Chorus recordings on cassette tape using the best technology available at the time. The tape contains songs recorded in 1940 and later distributed on records in albums, one of which is shown on the following pages.

Phelan's project is described in a December 1995 front-page feature shown on the "articles" page. A digital transfer of this tape is available on the "music" page (Record Labels section). A young Matt Phelan is heard on Side 2 in "Gesù Bambino" by Pietro Yon.
